

Tangier city tour

Tangier was an international city for more than 32 years until its annexation to Morocco in 1957. His position during the Cold War and other conflicting periods of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries is legendary. It acquired reputation of center of espionage and contraband attracted foreign capitals thanks to his political neutrality and commercial freedom in the international era. In addition, artists, writers, thinkers, Presidents of governments have made Tangier a city famous around the world.

Classic Visit

Panoramic city tour of the modern city and its neighborhoods up to the Kasbah. Then route on foot onto the medina to see the zocos where smells, sounds, narrow streets are everywhere like we are in a different moment of history. Visit of some shops and lunch in a typical restaurant (drinks not included). Afterwards departure to your next point scheduled. End of the serices.

Cultural visit

tour of the modern city to Cape Spartel, place where we can see how the Mediterranean and Atlantic meet. Entrance to the Caves of Hercules. Return to the city and visit the Kasbah. From here continuation on foot onto the medina to see the zocos where smells, sounds, narrow streets are everywhere like we are in a different moment of history. Get to know the Palace of the Sultan and enjoy a delicious lunch in a typical restaurant (drinks not included). Some free time for leisure and departure to your next point scheduled. End of the services.